New Jersey Promoters Can Profitably Study Painful Lessons Taught by Suicidal Actions of New York Club Owners

JERSEY BOXING MEN MUST OBEY RULES

Failure to Do So Will Result in Repetition of New York's Painful Experience.

HURDLE FOR FRED FULTON

By CROSS COUNTER.

New Jersey promoters of sports have since the legalization of boxing in that State indulged in much tremulous protest against a threatened invasion by a of Manhattan and Immediate vicinity

Frawley law frightfulness has been painted in vivid colors, and the halo crowned Jersey sportsmen have sobbed in convulsive terror over the prospective ravaging of their fair State by the ruth less promoters of the Empire commonmight draw tears from any one entirely unacquainted with the Jersey promoter, past and present. To possessors of ac-curate knowledge of the sporting conditions in Jersey it would appear that those interested in the proper conduct of boxing in that State have only one reason for fear, and that relates to the internal management of the game. The Jersey sportsman, notwithstanding his plaintive appeal for protection from the corrupting influence of New Fork promoters, is far from unsophisti-cated, and if the boxing game in that State is not handled in a straightforward and satisfactory manner it will be due entirely to the performances of the diffident persons who now are begging to be
